

Having Conversations about Gender and Sexuality is Worth It with Christopher and Dorothy Greco

RESOURCES

Please note: I do not agree with the theology put forth in all of these books and I have not read all of them cover to cover. However, I feel it's important for us to be reading thoughtful books so that we can be informed and form our own opinions.

Books

1. Butterfield, Rosaria, Secret Thoughts of an Unlikely Convert.
2. Butterfield, Rosaria, Openness Unhindered.
3. Citlau, Ron, Hope for the Same Sex Attracted.
4. Comiskey, Andy, Strength in Weakness.
5. Comiskey, Andy, Pursuing Sexual Wholeness.
6. DeYoung, Kevin, What Does the Bible Teach about Homosexuality?
7. Gagnon, Robert, The Bible and Homosexual Practice: Texts and Hermeneutics.
8. Hill, Wesley, Washed and Waiting.
Hill comes from the perspective that he will remain celibate, but he seems to have no hope that God can transform his sexuality.
9. Lee, Justin, Torn.
I strongly disagree with Lee's hermeneutic and his conclusions. However, if you want to understand a pro-gay perspective, this is a good book to read.
10. Payne, Leanne, The Broken Image.
11. Webb, William, Slaves, Women, and Homosexuals.
Academic, but a very strong and compelling perspective on these three topics.
12. Yuan, Christopher and Angela, Out of a Far Country.
I haven't read this book but have heard great things about it.

Websites and Online Articles

1. Desert Stream, <http://desertstream.org>
2. Lead Them Home, founded by Bill Henson: <http://leadthemhome.org/>
3. <http://josephnicolosi.com/my-old-friend-john-paulk/>
4. <http://www.thegospelcoalition.org/blogs/justintaylor/2015/04/08/a-panel-on-homosexuality-and-the-church/>
5. <http://www.respectfulconversation.net/hs-conversation/2015/9/1/science-and-same-sex-orientation-and-behavior-is-the-evidenc.html>