

Resource Staff

Drs. Paul and Virginia Friesen are the lead resource couple at H.I.M. They regularly speak at marriage, parenting, men's and women's conferences across the country and have authored a number of books and curriculums on parenting and marriage.

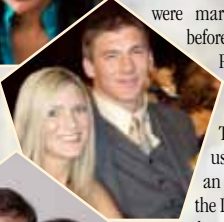

Nate Parks has spent over 15 years investing in youth ministry, in both church and camp settings. In addition to serving as Director at Camp Berea, Nate is a National Network of Youth Ministries' representative for Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont.

Kirsten Watson is vice-president of "One More" which she founded with her husband Benjamin to spread the hope and love of Christ to "one more soul" by meeting real needs and promoting education and providing enrichment opportunities. She leads an inspirational life of service to her community.

David and Kassidy Thomas were married in 2005 just before he joined the Patriots; David is now a tight end for the New Orleans Saints. They both desire to use this platform as an opportunity to serve the Lord and talk openly about their faith and about abstinence.

Brian and Heather Dietz met while serving on youth staff together at Grace Chapel and were married in 2004. They now have two young daughters. Brian is currently Pastor to Youth and Families at Highrock Church in Arlington, MA, where they both serve.

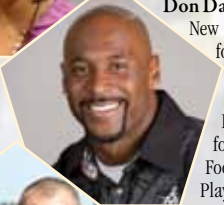

Lisa Friesen received her master's in Exercise Physiology from James Madison University. She has served as an athletic trainer at both the high school and university level. Lisa has a passion for people and the Lord and is very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Kate Wylie played for Division 1 Womens' Hockey while at Brown University. She married figure skater and Olympic silver medalist Paul Wylie, and now lives in Charlotte, NC, with their three small children. Kate is passionate about helping young people struggle well with life choices.

Don Davis retired from the New England Patriots football team after 11 years in the NFL and is now Regional Director for the National Football League Players Association. Along with handling the ministry needs of the current and former NFL players, Don is in charge of player transition, working conditions, and benefits. Don and his family reside in Leesburg, VA.

Jess and Elizabeth Bousa are graduates of Gordon-Conwell Seminary. Elizabeth met Christ early in life and Jess in Teen Challenge. Jess is the author of Discipleship Dare. They now live in Bel Air, Maryland, where Jess is on a church staff and Elizabeth is a therapist.

What Attendees Are Saying

"I loved seeing examples of young adults who committed themselves to purity, lived it, and saw the blessing of waiting." — 16-year-old girl

"This seminar has changed me so much. I'm so grateful for all the work you put into to teaching us about love, boundaries, and faith, and I know what you said changed a lot of the lives in that room and especially mine. Thank you so much." — 13-year-old girl

"I wish I had an opportunity to hear that I was Worth It when I was a teen. I'm glad I was able to bring my son." — Adult

"Thank you! The day gave our kids courage and conviction. The seven hours on the bus was absolutely worth it. You are the 'voice of one crying in the wilderness.' You just keep crying and we'll keep shepherding—kids are hearing the call." — Youth Pastor, Maine
